

LEANN D. ELLIS

LeAnn Drummond Ellis is a partner in the Stillwater law firm of Ellis & Ellis. She is also “Of Counsel” to the law firm of GableGotwals with offices in Tulsa and Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. She received a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting, with highest honors, from Oklahoma State University and a Juris Doctor degree, with distinction, from the University of Oklahoma College of Law, where she was named to Order of the Coif.

Ms. Ellis has over 29 years of experience practicing in the areas of estate and tax planning, trust litigation, business organization and formation, trusts and wills, and probate. She is a former staff attorney for the Internal Revenue Service District Office in Oklahoma City and a former special assistant in the U. S. Attorney’s Office for the Western District of Oklahoma.

Ms. Ellis frequently lectures, publishes, and writes on estate planning and business issues. For many years she presented the Oklahoma Bar Association annual presentation on recent developments in the areas of estate planning, probate, guardianship and trust law. She also serves as an expert witness in estate and trust cases. She is a member of the Oklahoma Bar Association and the Payne County Bar Association. She is past chair of the Estate Planning, Probate and Trust Section of the Oklahoma Bar Association. She is former president and gala chairperson of the Stillwater Public Education Foundation. She is also currently the Oklahoma State Chair of the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel. Ms. Ellis is married and has two daughters, one dog and a cat.