

After graduating law school at the University of Nebraska in 1989, Rachael K. Pirner began her practice with Triplett Woolf Garretson, LLC, in Wichita, Kansas, where she remains today.

Approximately 60% of Rachael's practice involves representation of parties in assisted reproductive technology (ART) and adoption. She has worked on many egg donor, sperm donor and embryo donation agreements, gestational carrier agreements, parentage actions, and adoptions. Due to her ART expertise, she has assisted the Kansas Family Law Judicial Council Advisory Committee in revising the Uniform Parentage Act. She also specializes in probate-related litigation including guardianships, conservatorships, trusts and decedents' estates. She has represented clients in evidentiary hearings and has tried cases, at the district court level. She has argued cases before the Kansas Court of Appeals and Kansas Supreme Court.

Rachael has served in all offices of the Kansas Bar Association (KBA), after serving as Governor to the KBA Board of Governors. She has been active in the Wichita Women Attorneys Association holding all offices of the Association as well as serving on that board. Rachael has served all offices in the Kansas Women Attorneys Association and served on that board. She continued to serve on the KBA Board of Governors while serving two terms as KBA Delegate to the American Bar Association (ABA) House of Delegates currently serving on the KBA Board of Governors in her capacity as the Kansas State Delegate to the ABA House of Delegates. She is currently serving on the Family Law Section board for the ABA. Rachael is the Kansas State Chair for the American Bar Foundation.
