

Margaret Van Houten is an attorney in West Des Moines, Iowa, having recently retired from Dentons Davis Brown, PC. Her practice has been focused on tax, trusts, estates and employee benefits. She is a Fellow of the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel (ACTEC) and has served as a member of its Board of Regents and Executive Committee. Her committee service includes as chair and long-time member of the Technology and Communications Committees, Digital Assets Committee, The Financial Action Task Force (FATF) and the Artificial Intelligence Task Force. Margaret has been a frequent speaker on various Tax, Trust and Estates Issues. She is also an active member of the Iowa State Bar Association's probate, trust and estate section as well as its tax committee.

Margaret has recently started The Lawyers Helper, a firm that assists lawyers and law firms with their workload, systems, processes and projects. See <https://www.lawyershelper.com>